“ Tranquillity comes naturally to Can Ceasaar, with sweeping sea views that stretch north towards Tagomago and south towards Formentera.

Outside, four towering palm trees cast the eye upwards, while the azure waters of a 60 square-metre swimming pool seems to stretch out to the green landscape and ocean beyond. A fully-equipped al fresco kitchen is complete with a barbecue; elsewhere, there's an array of shaded dining and lounging spots, a sundeck and jacuzzi. Come evening, head up to the rooftop deck with a sundowner and gather friends to watch a movie in the outdoor cinema.

The principal bedroom suite inspires with its soothing and sophisticated design. Matching Can Ceasaar's social heart, vast glazing can be opened to create synergy with the lush landscape. There's a finely-crafted dressing room with wooden wardrobes and a restful en suite bathroom, featuring a dual vanity, freestanding bathtub and oversized rainfall shower – wrapped in pale stone. Spread across the lower level, five guest bedroom suites have all been imagined with pared-back tones, rustic materials and an abundance of glazing to capitalise on the outstanding views.
