

DOMUS NOVA

Casa Armonia, Cala Moli

For 10 guests

Contemporary proportions meet tactile textures. This reimagined island home features five bedrooms and secluded sea views. Above the coastline of Cala Moli, studded double doors grant access to a design-forward villa. Inside the main house, sophisticated design elevates robust materials and rustic accents. On the ground floor, generous glazing and an open-plan layout make the most of the home's expansive views.

White columns, stone flooring and exposed beams unite the voluminous kitchen, dining and reception room. Ibicencan design details pair with modern comforts in the traditional kitchen. Two convivial living areas are backdropped by curious artwork. Crowned with woven light features, a hardwood table provides seating for eight.

Vast glass doors pour in sunlight. Beyond, a terrace sits above the tree-line and enjoys verdant hillside views. Stepping stones cross a manicured lawn, guiding the way to the villa's heated saltwater pool. Set among palms and pines, double sun loungers make the most of the Mediterranean weather. Steps lead up to the annex where a sheltered terrace encompasses a dining space with seating for 10 and twin snugs with banquette seating. Overhead, a wood ceiling creates an organic feel.

The home's principal bedroom dominates the top floor of the main house. This 80-square-metre space features a living area, an en suite with a bathtub and a wrap-around terrace complete with an outdoor shower and ocean vistas. The main house and guest house each feature two further calming bedrooms. For revitalisation, the villa also benefits from a gym, hammam and massage area.

Location

Tucked away from the crowds, the area of Cala Moli takes its name from a pebbly cove. For some of the best local cuisine, head to Sa Soca – a family-run restaurant in the heart of the San José village. Other coveted dining spots include Hostal La Torre and Sunset Ashram, both with spectacular sunset views. Set on the Cala Tarida beach just south of San Antonio bay, the Cotton Beach Club is a classic Ibizan resort with chic white furniture and parasols to match – under ten minutes away. Head a little further south and reach Cala D'Hort, with breathtaking views of Es Vedra.
