

DOMUS NOVA

Casa Luz, Cala Jondal

For 10 guests

Just moments from Cala Jondal beach, this five-bedroom villa is a showpiece of modern architecture that puts you at one with nature. There's a peaceful serenity to Casa Luz, a striking villa surrounded by lush gardens and verdant landscape. Backdropped by the glittering Mediterranean, the whitewashed cubic home sits in bold contrast to its natural surroundings – while its multiple-level aspect and wealth of glazing ensures connectivity to the outdoors, wherever you are.

The home makes a captivating first impression, with steps that lead up to decorative wooden doors. Inside, the open-plan kitchen and reception room is drawn with a sophisticated interior eye. Floor-to-ceiling windows bathe the space in natural light and frame views of the pine-clad scenery and azure coastline outside.

The dining area is positioned next to an exposed stone wall, which adds an organic materiality to the setting.

There are multiple terraces across the plot, offering sun-drenched lounging areas and shaded retreats. At the heart of the outdoors space, an infinity pool captures attention. Beneath on a separate level is an additional 25 metre infinity swimming pool; cool off in the water before relaxing on one of the four-poster day beds. For al fresco dining, there's a Balinese gazebo complete with pendant lights, a sleek glass table and wicker chairs. Come evening, the grounds are illuminated with the glow of warm spot lighting.

Inside, each of the five double bedrooms echo Casa Luz's refined, contemporary aesthetic. The principal suite is a sophisticated sanctum, featuring a freestanding bathtub, private terrace and sweeping panoramic views of the sea from the villa's highest vantage point. The five guest bedroom suites are finished with neutral tones and natural textures. For fitness enthusiasts, there's a dedicated gym.

Long Ibicencan summers play out along the infamous shores of Cala Jondal, Cala Comte and Cala Tarida, while a short scramble through rural trails will reach smaller beaches set away from the crowds. Sant Josep is one of South West Ibiza's most beloved towns, replete with traditional restaurants, easygoing bars and local craft shops – as well as a Saturday farmers and artisans market. For nature lovers, the Natural Park of Ses Salines is a historic site of salt production and ecological diversity. Or head into Ibiza Town for its historic architecture, upmarket shopping districts, experimental eateries and luxury marinas. From Cala d'Hort beach or the Torre de Savinar lookout tower, watch the sunset across Es Vedrà, a monolithic rock that stretches upwards out of the sea.
