

DOMUS NOVA

Villa Rosa, South East Ibiza

For 12 guests

Set among rolling hills in Ibiza's countryside, this striking six-bedroom villa is immersed in nature. A space that inspires serenity, Villa Rosa makes a case for the island's laid back way of life. Clean architectural lines and curated interiors contrast with the surrounding landscape – olive groves, fragrant trees, and multiple terraces that bask in the sun.

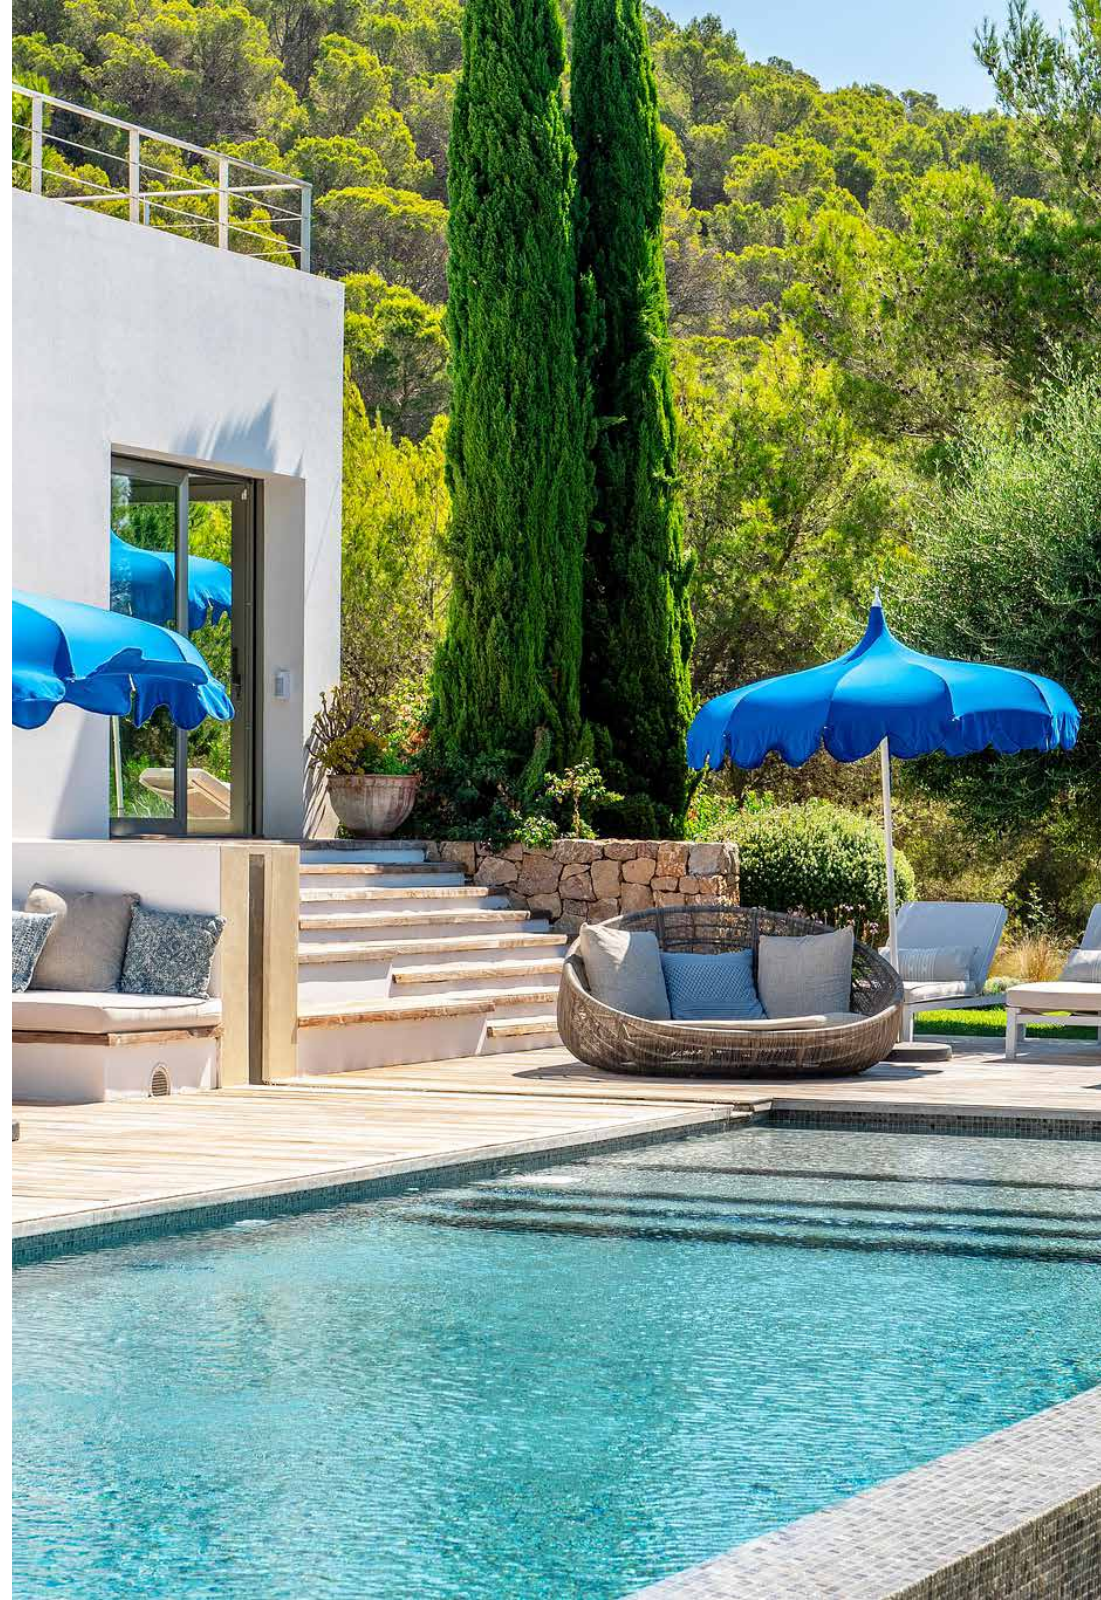

A private path winds through greenery to the villa's bold silhouette, its cubic form and whitewashed walls offset by the vivid colours of the landscape. Inside, an island-inspired aesthetic is playful but put-together. Vast glass panels lend a seamless connection to the outside, where multiple terraces extend the interiors outwards. Drift between shaded lounge spots and an exceptional outdoor kitchen, or descend steps to the sun-drenched terrace. An unrivalled setting for summer months – cool off in the swimming pool or sink into cushioned spots of shade. For sweeping countryside views, head up to one of the roof-top terraces.

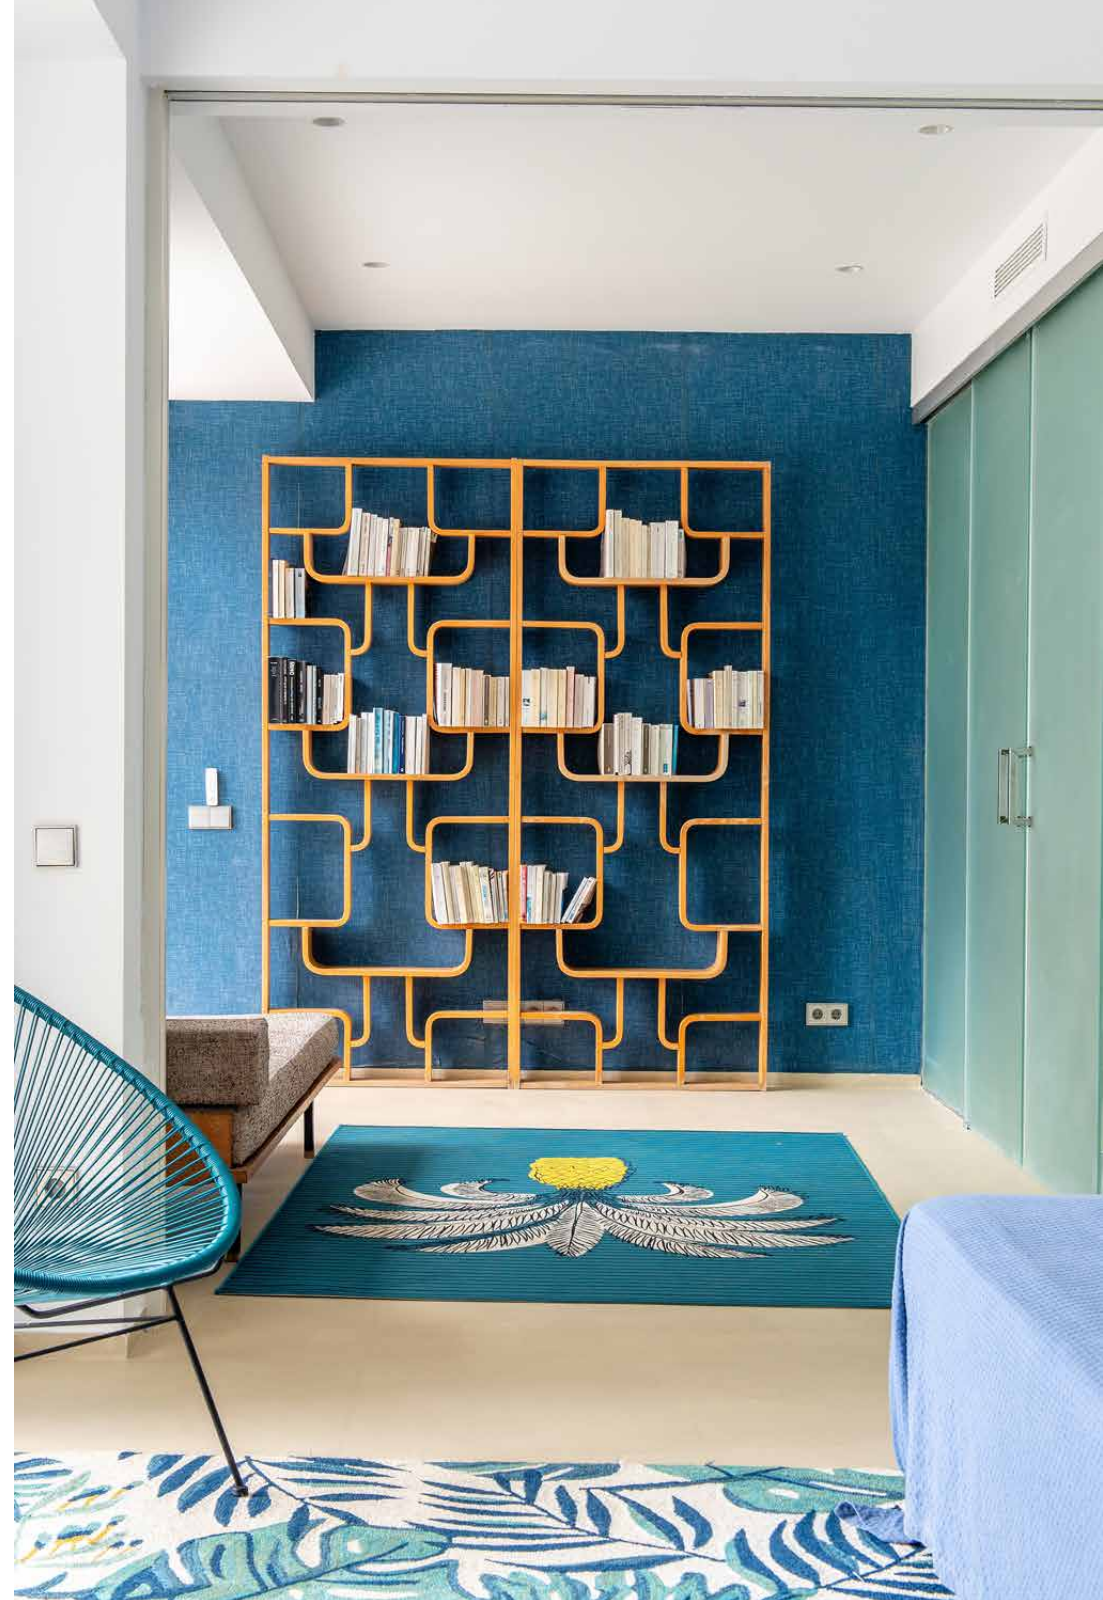

Indoors, open-plan living brings an ease to the everyday. Plush pink sofas sit against a backdrop of clean lines and curated artwork, while bamboo pendants overhead lend a sculptural quality. The kitchen is sleek and considered; utilise the breakfast bar for quick bites or the dedicated dining area for hosting.

Each of the six bedrooms is thoughtfully designed. Vast picture windows frame verdant views, while spa-like en suite bathrooms feature oversized stone tiles and rainfall showers or freestanding bathtubs. Two bedrooms in the guesthouse offer even greater privacy, plus a secluded terrace.
