

DOMUS NOVA

Villa Oasis, Sa Caleta
For 14 guests

Nestled in the lush Sa Caleta hills with sweeping sea views, this seven-bedroom whitewashed villa is a bold outline across Balearic blue skies.

Curated with considered design, Villa Oasis' modernist silhouette gives way to panoramic views of the southern seas. Currently undergoing renovations due to complete by Spring, this contemporary island home will offer seven spacious bedrooms, plus a sauna and cold plunge.

This striking retreat is formed of a series of interconnected cubic volumes that neatly zone living spaces and bedrooms. An oversized timber door guides you into the open-plan kitchen and reception room, imagined for entertaining and relaxing in equal measure. To one side, the sofas and fireplace are set for cosy movie nights; to the other, a dining table is illuminated by a pendant ring light. Sheaths of full-width glazing frame views of the garden and azure-blue waters beyond, creating seamless flow between the inside and out.

A sculptural infinity pool takes centre-stage in the garden, framed by lush vegetation. Enjoy a cooling dip followed by some chill-out time under the pergola. From dawn to dusk, gaze out to Salinas, Platja des Cavallet and the soothing salt planes.

Dedicated to relaxation and play, Villa Oasis features a host of exercise and games equipment. A home gym features an elliptical trainer, rowing machine, boxing bag and weights. If Padel or pétanque is more your calling, find two dedicated courts amongst the peaceful grounds. A spacious games room is home to a pool and ping pong table, keeping young ones entertained throughout the day.

The first-floor master suite is serene and sunlit, with a private terrace ideal for early-morning yoga sessions. Spread across the ground and lower-ground levels, four additional bedroom suites are cool and contemporary. Imagined for couples or guests wanting more privacy, a separate casita is complete with a double and single bedroom, a sleek family bathroom and secluded terrace.
