

DOMUS NOVA

Westbourne Terrace Road, W2
£2,000,000

Made up of picturesque period homes and canal-side narrowboats, Little Venice vaunts a serene quality. From the exterior, this apartment echoes its surroundings. Beyond its private entrance, a stark contrast unravels in the form of vibrant interiors and contemporary architectural design.

Through Crittall glass doors, a laterally arranged living space exudes personality. Traditional and contemporary are thoughtfully balanced; a Georgian Bow window looks out to the courtyard – a quiet spot to sip coffee – while a 101 Copenhagen drop chandelier makes for a striking centrepiece. Establish the ambiance with the marble fireplace, Lutron lighting system and built-in speaker system.

The adjoining kitchen is a masterpiece in marble; monochrome chequered tiles sweep underfoot while a Rosso Luana Verde island serves as a sleek workspace. No detail has gone unnoticed here, from the Zellige tile backsplash and Lusso Stone hardware. Top of the range Gaggenau appliances offer the finishing touch. A glass conservatory plays host to the dining area, where bi-folding doors connect an exterior decked space – perfect for entertaining in warmer climes. A landscaped green lawn lies beyond, bordered by maturing trees and walls for privacy.

Engineered oak floors pave the way to the principal bedroom, a soothing space with pared-back design, fitted wardrobes and garden access via French doors. Its en suite is the real showstopper though, crafted with bespoke Mosaic Factory terrazzo, a travertine worktop and underfloor heating. Two further bedrooms embody the home's design forward feel and are served by a family bathroom with a copper effect roll-top bathtub.

The home additionally benefits from use of a private garage.
