

DOMUS NOVA

El Ocaso A, Cala Tarida

From €900,050

Soak up the sea and sunset views over Cala Tarida from these design-led apartments for sale, part of a new coastal development.

Set in the bay of Cala Tarida on the island's west coast, El Ocaso's location is unrivalled. A new gated development of contemporary homes, its villas offer 180-degree views of the ocean or the surrounding mountains. Minutes from the beach, privacy is assured with 24-hour access control and CCTV. For leisure time, there are eight communal pools and pristine landscaped gardens.

Scheduled for completion from summer 2024 onwards, each villa embodies contemporary Ibizan style and generous outdoor living spaces. Some come with plunge pools; all feature scenic rooftop terraces to enjoy the sunset.

Inside, open-plan footprints vary in configuration, but share considered finishes. Floor-to-ceiling glazing ensures an abundance of natural light, while Azteca porcelain tiles flow between living and dining areas. Porcelanosa kitchens are elevated with integrated Siemens appliances and Roca sinks, as well as a choice of two splashback finishes. From here, expansive outdoor areas beckon. Each villa comes with a shaded pergola for al fresco dining and a private garden.

On the ground floor, the principal bedroom suite exudes serenity with organic materials – plus a bathtub or rainfall shower depending on layout. Ascend a striking oak staircase for access to two guest bedrooms, each with a terrace and a shared bathroom.

The pièce de résistance, all villas are crowned with an expansive rooftop terrace boasting panoramic views, integrated seating and flourishing Mediterranean flora. A bar area and jacuzzi overlook either the picturesque mountainside or the azure sea beyond.

Villa prices range from €790,000 to €987,000, with certain customisation options and furniture packages available for an additional cost. Get in touch for further details.
