

DOMUS NOVA

Finca Arcos, San Carlos
For 10 guests

Rustic luxe in San Carlos. A renovated finca rooted in the island's architectural heritage.

One for the traditionalists, Finca Arcos wears its history proudly. Step through the bougainvillea-covered stone archway and you'll find relics from its past preserved throughout.

From textured tiled floors to knotted Sabina beams, the aesthetic favours the understated. Free from distractions, interconnected living spaces are arranged to prioritise effortless socialising and relaxation. Thick, whitewashed walls lend a private, cosseted feel, helping to keep the finca cosy in winter and cool the rest of the year.

Sensitively updated by its current owners, the kitchen has been given a contemporary edge with micro cement finishes and high-spec appliances, including a Smeg range cooker. Skylights cut into the original wooden ceilings allow light to flood into the muted space. Dine here or at the covered al fresco table, overlooking the scenic pool. Backdropped by fruit orchards and sweeping Morna Valley vistas, the scent of orange, lemon and apricot trees lingers heavily in the air.

Some of the best views can be enjoyed from the first-floor terrace, where you can catch a glimpse of the sea on the horizon, beyond wide-reaching, rolling hills.

Much like its easy-going location, nothing shouts here. The toned-down palette in all five bedrooms is soothing and airy, while bathrooms blend micro cement, brushed bronze, onyx, marble and stone to tactile yet subtle effect.

Location

Nestled in the secluded Morna Valley, Finca Arcos is tucked away between the authentic villages of Santa Eulalia and San Carlos. Absolute privacy and peace come with the territory here. Close by, Cala Mastella is among Ibiza's smallest and most unspoilt beaches for those in-the-know – join the locals snorkelling in its calm, clear waters. To embrace the island's free spirited nature, raise a toast at legendary Anita's Bar in San Carlos, take a trip to the hippy market in Las Dalia or enjoy the live music on offer in nearby San Juan.
