Finca Agustin, San Agustin

For 12 guests

This five-bedroom villa is full of character-filled details, outdoor chill-out zones, and enjoys panoramic views towards the sea.

The ultimate hilltop retreat, this five-bedroom villa offers stunning panoramic views across the Mediterranean landscape and glimpses of the sea. Arranged over a main house, which comprises the master suite and a second bedroom – both with their own private entrances – and the kitchen/dining area, also with its own entrance.

The second building at Finca Agustin has three bedrooms, all en suite, and a cosy lounge. Styled to an impeccable standard, this finca features classic Sabina beams, a boho-inspired open kitchen and intricate internal brickwork to create a cool and chic living environment. Carefully considered, the floor-to-ceiling windows flood all levels of this home with natural light which, teamed with stone floors, allows the home to remain cool throughout the day.

Shaded from the sun, an eclectic outdoor dining area is submerged in the lush orchard and surrounding gardens – perfect for a summer evening barbecue with friends.

Surrounded by lush, fragrant gardens and set at the heart of the home is the spectacular pool, with views of San Antonio Bay. The outdoor-living pockets are just as impressive as the villa itself. The 6 x 14 metre swimming pool is surrounded by wooden decking, chill out loungers and an array of bean bags – the ultimate place to catch some island rays. Shaded from the sun, the eclectic outdoor dining area is submerged in the lush orchard and surrounding gardens – perfect for a summer evening barbecue with friends.

The sweeping open-plan kitchen and dining area has striking features including Sabina beams, cool black concrete flooring and intricate stone walls. With five bedrooms across all levels, this indulgent villa offers a master bedroom suite that leads to a private terrace – the ideal spot for a morning coffee. Benefiting from a separate guest house, this home is perfect for larger groups and families. Styled to a high standard, all bedrooms offer chic yet simple interiors.
