

DOMUS NOVA

Villa Cuarzo, South West
€7,700,000

A stand-out five-bedroom villa for sale with panoramic sea and sunset views. Three levels of considered design showcase light-filled living spaces and design by Ibiza Interiors.

Set into the pine-tufted hillside of Ibiza's coveted western edge, this contemporary island home marries timeless materials with modern design principles. Renowned design studio Ibiza Interiors has employed organic textures and pristine finishes to bring this sophisticated island home to life.

The open-plan kitchen and reception room makes a bold first impression. Arranged around a monolithic island with a waterfall countertop, the artfully designed kitchen is finished in natural stone and hand-crafted wood. Stylish pendant lights illuminate the breakfast bar while a chandelier crowns the dining area. Finished in charcoal-toned plaster, a central feature wall zones the space and incorporates an ultra-modern fireplace.

Stone floors flow into the living area where expansive glazing frames panoramic views. Natural light floods the space, creating an uplifting feel. Bi-folding glass doors grant access to a large terrace with an infinity pool, its surface slipping away into the ocean. The plot unfolds to reveal a roof terrace with a second infinity pool, a grill and a bar area. An unrivalled vantage point forms a terrace for dining or relaxing. Beyond, a private pathway leads down to the beach.

A sense of tranquillity has been curated within the principal bedroom suite. This space features floor-to-ceiling windows, a stone bathtub and a private terrace with spectacular views of the glittering Mediterranean Sea. Accessed via a walk-in wardrobe, an en suite bathroom is wrapped in natural stone and features a large wet room and separate freestanding bath. The principal bedroom suite also features a spiral staircase leading directly to a tranquil rooftop terrace.

Three further en suite bedrooms occupy the upper floor. The lower ground floor features a separate self-contained guest suite. This level also includes a gym, cinema, glass-walled garage and a hotel-grade spa with a hydro pool and sauna.

*Villa Cuarzo is currently in development, with completion due in winter 2023/2024 (dependent on whether the buyer wishes to make any changes). CGI's are for illustrative purposes only and do not necessarily represent final specification.
