

DOMUS NOVA

Villa Estrella, San Jose

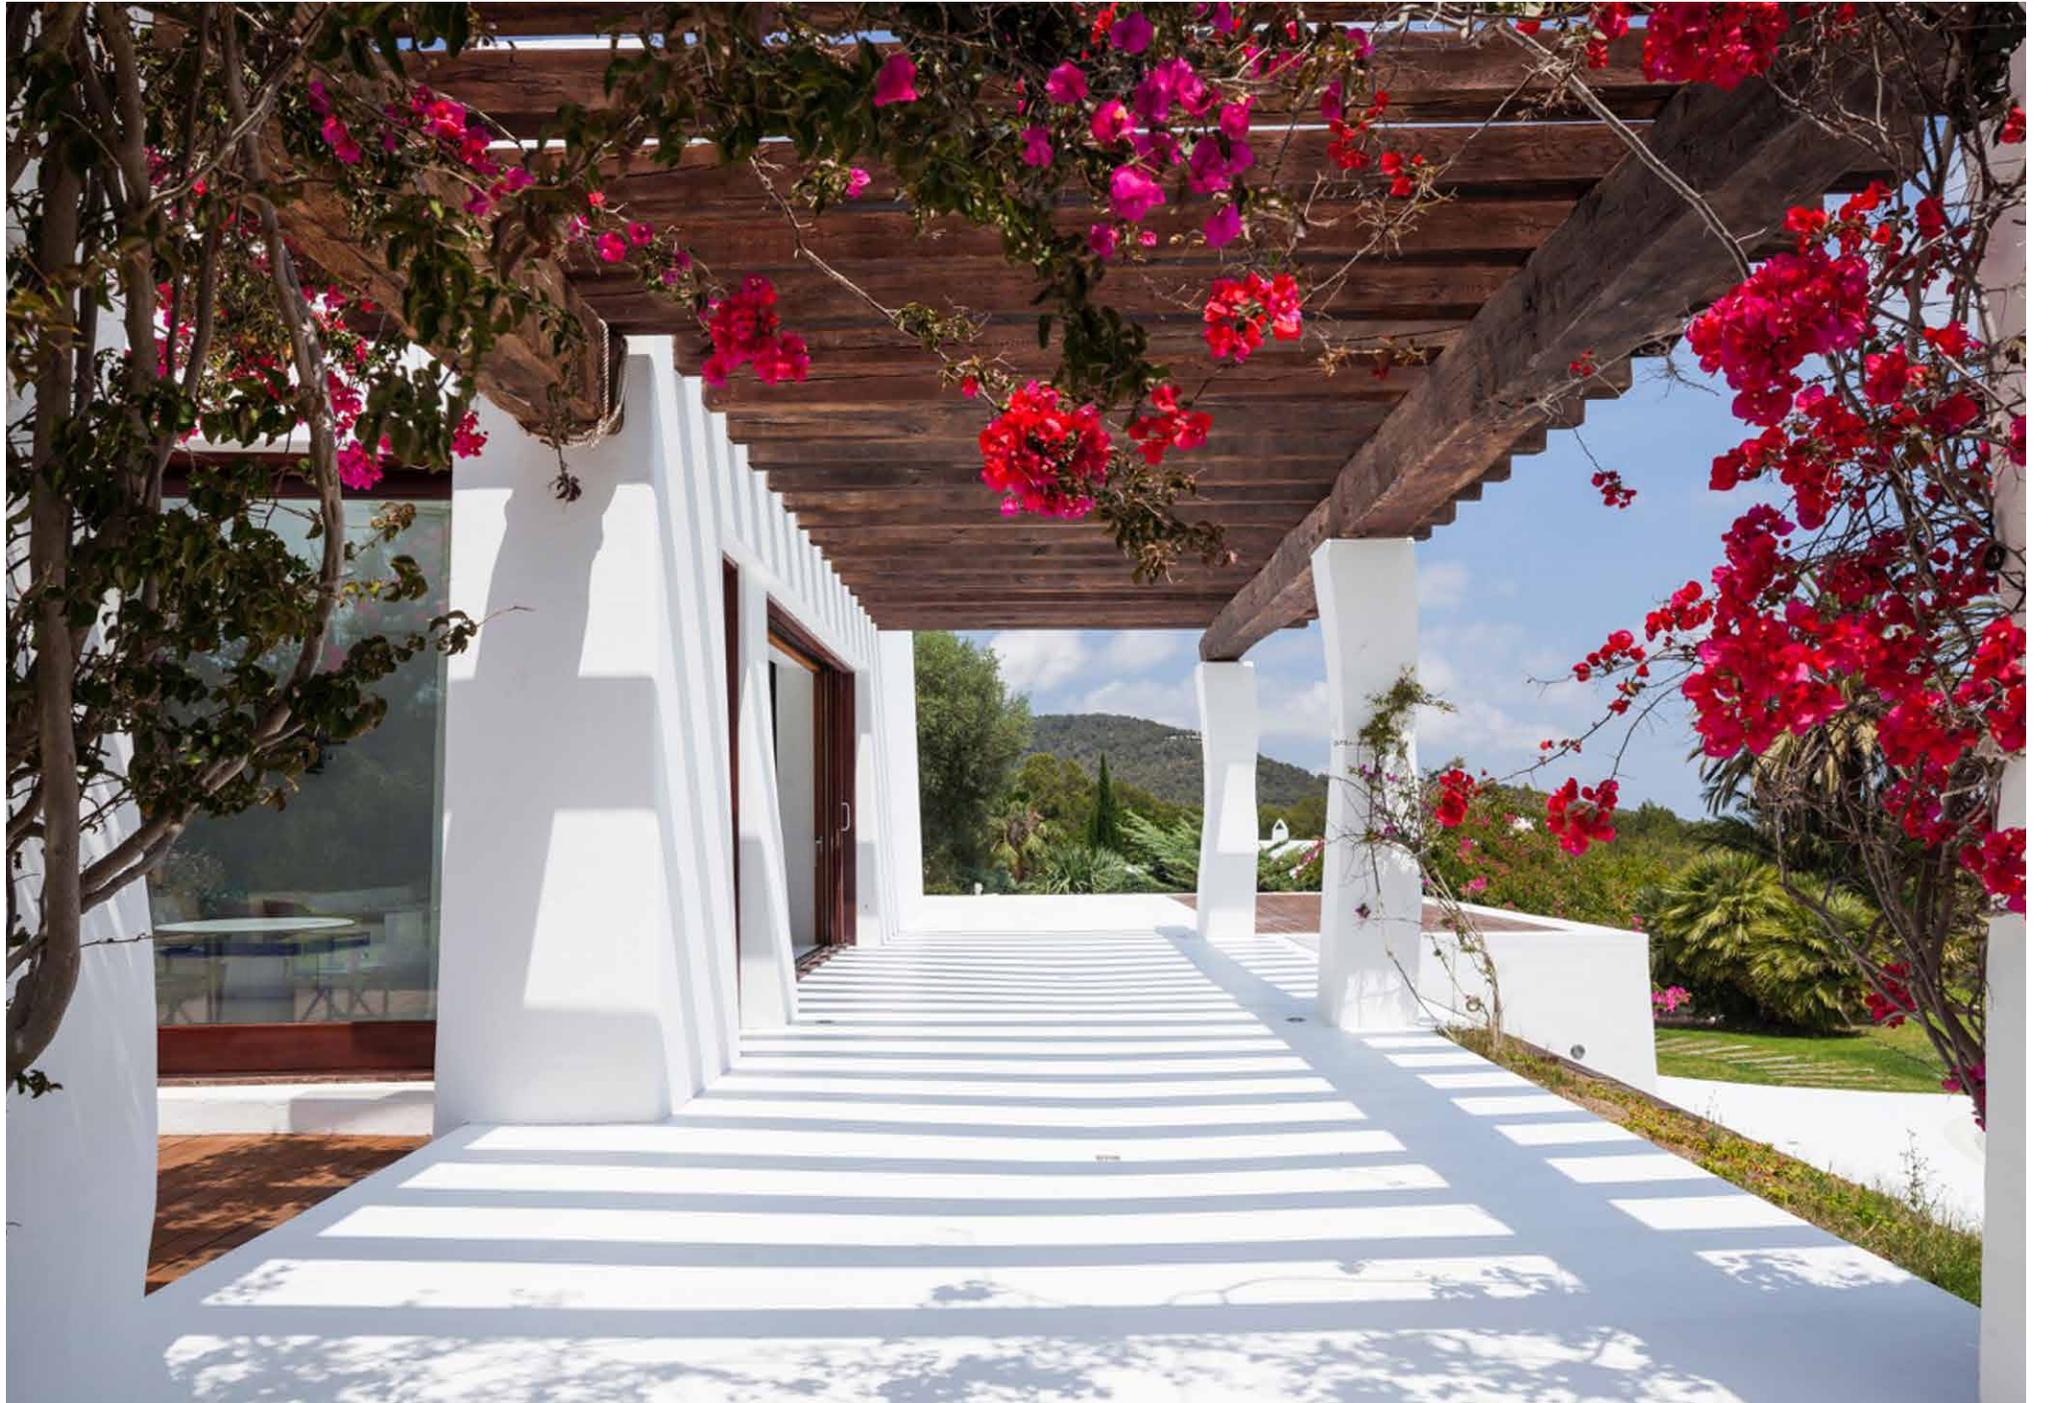

For 12 guests

Extensive outdoor areas. Exceptional views. A massage and meditation space. Plus, a private club and chill out room.

Arranged as a main house with four bedrooms and a separate honeymoon suite in the payesa house, this Gaudi-inspired villa is surrounded by three hectares of lush Mediterranean gardens where an array of fresh fruit and colourful bougainvillea grow. Totally unique from the rest of the island's villas, Villa Estrella offers a master suite that is completely private and independent from the rest of the grounds, making it the ultimate location for a honeymoon.

All five-bedrooms have been beautifully styled to showcase tasteful interiors and minimalist elegance, creating a calm and welcoming environment. At the core of this home, the bespoke infinity pool is surrounded by fragrant vegetation and wooden decking, allowing guests to enjoy a welcome cool off from the island rays. With its own massage and meditation room, extensive outdoor area for large private events and even its own club room, this villa is the perfect location to create unforgettable experiences.

Showcasing a clever mix of contemporary architecture and traditional island construction, the independent 'payesa' house is a 200-year-old traditional Ibizan casa payesa. Secluded from the main house, the payesa offers a fully equipped kitchen, spacious living room and tranquil outdoor dining area.

Located on the top of the hill, the main villa is a generously designed building. Styled to perfection, the interiors are sleek and effortless, with cooling concrete floors, white-washed walls and bespoke marble detailing.

The Chill Out & Club at Villa Estrella can be used for two very different reasons – relax and unwind after a long day in the sun or host a party for all your guests! The TV room offers a comfortable space for up to 15 people and features a pool table, bar and futbolín with the club room benefiting from some of the latest club technology.

Surrounded by three hectares of lush gardens, the outdoor spaces at this villa are breathtaking and include a stunning infinity pool, multiple dining areas and shaded seating zones. If this is not enough Villa Estrella also has its own table tennis table,
