

DOMUS NOVA

Villa Nomad, Cala Mastella

€ 3.950.000

Nestled in nature in a northern corner of the island, settings don't come more serene than at Villa Nomad.

From the rustle of the along along reed roofs to the sound of the surrounding palm trees swaying in the breeze, peace and tranquillity soundtracks daily life here. Designed to enhance your connection with the outdoors from every angle, the panorama from the villa's numerous vantage points spans lush tropical greenery and the ocean.

Completely renovated by renowned interior architect Dolores Batselaere, the sand-toned villa is as soothing inside as it is out. Earthy blush plaster tones and natural stone floors are contrasted with anthracite cement walls in the open-plan living space. It feels both spacious and intimate, with ample room for entertaining. A shaded terrace overlooks the swimming pool, while a feature fireplace is flanked by a picture window that peeks into the garden beyond.

The effortless interplay between inside and out continues in each of the four bedrooms, all featuring rustic en-suites with rainfall showers for ultimate privacy and access to wrap around terraces that snake up to the scenic roof. A row of trees marks the pathway to the covered outdoor bar.
