

DOMUS NOVA

Villa Terrosa, Cap Martinet

€ 8.750.000

Two six-bedroom villas for sale with refined design. Styling by Ibiza Interiors pairs with south-facing, panoramic sea views.

Set in the exclusive town of Cap Martinet, two six-bedroom sea-view villas have an expected completion in December 2024. With contemporary architecture by JEA Arquitectura y Paisajismo, founded by award-winning designer Juan Echeverría, open-plan layouts blur boundaries between the indoors and out.

A vast open-plan reception room, dining area and kitchen is spread across the first floor. Natural textures and a muted colour palette set a calming feel, courtesy of Ibiza Interiors' considered décor. Soaring 4.5 metre pitched ceilings are lined with wooden beams, while polished floors run throughout. The kitchen showcases raw stone worktops and fluted wooden panels, centred by an inviting island. Appliances are seamlessly integrated, including a floor-to-ceiling wine cooler.

Slide back the full-height glazing to the expansive terrace, zoned between canopied dining and seating areas. Take in the panoramic sea views that stretch towards Formentera from the saltwater infinity pool. Sharing this floor is the principal bedroom suite – a contemporary space elevated by its minimalist aesthetic, refined material palette and atmospheric accent lighting. Its en suite bathroom is clad in raw concrete and matte black fixtures, softened by sunlight that washes through the large skylight.

Five further bedroom suites can be found on the ground floor. The spaces vaunt organic colours and peaceful vistas, each served by a contemporary en suite bathroom. This floor offers plenty of space for a home gym, spa or additional bedrooms. Completing the home, there's a private garage with parking for three cars.
